

Project Office

The Project Office manages and supports a series of complex and strategic projects across the University, drawing on a range of dedicated project resources.

The team consists of a combination of experienced project managers, project support officers and process analysts who lead and support the delivery of a portfolio of strategic and locally-based projects and programmes.

The team provides advice and support to the wider University staff community, through project management training, online support tools, and collaborative networking events.

Key people

IT Services - Head of Project Office

Heather Behan

Email – h.behan@bham.ac.uk (<mailto:h.behan@bham.ac.uk>)

Telephone - +44 (0)121 414 3131