Relax and study

Your school may have a designated learning space, but there are also a number of study and social spaces across the university's campuses. Our study spaces map \(/welcome/campus/studyspaces.aspx\) shows you where.

“ University of Birmingham student "There were tours and stuff and that's when I really started to love the campus."

Computer clusters

The University provides flexible computer clusters and Learning Suites \(http://www.clusters.bham.ac.uk/clusterloc.shtml\) at many locations across the University campus.

Eat and shop on campus

The University's main campus has a good range of facilities that should provide you with the necessary services and essentials on a day to day basis. They include banks and shops \(/community/university-campus/retail/shops.aspx\), and a choice of places to eat \(/community/university-campus/retail/food-and-drink-on-campus.aspx\).

“ University of Birmingham student "It's a very inviting campus."

Safety

Your security on and around campus is of paramount importance. Security staff are available 24 hours a day should you require help or assistance. In addition a police office is based in the centre of campus and the University has its own community police officer.
