

Accommodation

It is important that you find accommodation where you are comfortable and can focus on your studies and enjoying your stay in the UK. Below you will find details of types of accommodation available.

University accommodation

Many first year students choose to live in University provided accommodation. There is a choice of accommodation at different sites and prices.

Hotels

You may need to stay in temporary accommodation when you first came to the UK, while you make arrangements for more permanent accommodation. There is a lot of choices for hotels and similar accommodation.
