

Hotels and temporary accommodation

This page provides advice on how to look for temporary accommodation in the Birmingham area.

Types of temporary accommodation

In the UK, as well as hotels, there are guest houses and Bed & Breakfasts (B&Bs). Guest houses and B&Bs are often smaller than hotels and may offer limited services (e.g. no restaurant) or expect you to be out during the day, so you should check this when booking.

Where to stay

ISAS cannot recommend any specific hotels or guest houses but it is easy to search for these online. There are many hotels in Birmingham.

You can check how close the hotel or guest house is to the university by using Google maps \(http://maps.google.co.uk/maps?hl=en&tab=wl\). You will need the post code of the hotel and the University postcode which is B15 2TT.

You can search for hotels and guest houses using the following websites:

- Visit Britain \(http://www.visitbritain.co.uk/accommodation/\)
- Lastminute.com \(http://www.lastminute.com/\)
- Hotelguide.com \(http://www.hotelguide.com/home.seam\)

You may also want to use the Trip Adviser \(http://www.tripadvisor.co.uk/Hotels\) website which allows you to read reviews of hotels from people that have stayed there.

We would love to hear your feedback on our site. Please fill out this form or email us at welcome@contacts.bham.ac.uk.
