

The Making of Modernity

Centre for the Study of Cultural Modernity

21 March 2012, 4-6pm Arts 103

The Birmingham Centre for the Study of Cultural Modernity, based in the College of Arts and Law, is an interdisciplinary hub for research into the textual, artistic, and cultural formation of the 'modern' self and society that resulted from a process of rapid industrialisation over the second half of the nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth. These seminars explore this process.

This event is open to all staff and postgraduate students, and these papers will be followed by a collective discussion.
