

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

JUSTICE IN TRANSITIONS 18th June 2019
BIRMINGHAM LAW SCHOOL

9:15-9:45 – Coffee/Tea and Welcome in SCR

10:00 – 11:15 Panel #1 (Harding 405)

Paper #1 – Seb Eskauriatza - ‘Transitional Justice Rhetoric or Reality? – Amnesties for the Mexican Cartels

Paper #2 – Rob Cryer – ‘International Criminal Tribunals as Agents of Transitional Justice’

11:15-11:30 Coffee/Tea break (SCR)

11:30 – 12:15 Panel #2 (Harding 405)

Paper #3 – Milena Tripkovic – ‘Whose justice? Distinctive Features of Community Involvement in Punishing at the Domestic and International Levels’

Paper #4 – Mairead Enright – ‘“Inheriting a deep shame”: Conceptions of Inheritance in Irish Legal Responses to Gendered Historical Abuse’

12:15 – 2:00 Lunch (SCR)

2:00 – 3:15 Panel #3 (Harding 405)

Paper #5 – Alan Greene – ‘The Good Friday Agreement, The European Convention on Human Rights and Amnesties for British Soldiers’

Paper #6 – Mohammad Shahabuddin – ‘Transitional Justice as a Neoliberal Project’

3:15 Coffee/Tea break (SCR)

3:30 – 4:45 – KeyNote and Q+A - Sarah Nouwen – (Cantab) (Harding 405)

‘The Standardisation of Transitional Justice – Case Study on the Sudans’