Radical Mischief: A Conference Inviting Experiment in Theatre, Thought and Politics
Friday 20 and Saturday 21 July 2018
The Other Place and the Shakespeare Institute, Stratford-upon-Avon

Bursary Application Form

Please complete the information below and return to Daisy Murray by 22nd March 2018
- Email: daisy.murray@rsc.org.uk
- Post: RSC Education Dept. Waterside, Stratford-upon-Avon, CV37 6BB

---

Full Name

Contact Telephone Number

Alternative Telephone Number

Email Address

Address Line 1

Address Line 2

Address Line 3

Address Line 4

Postcode
Please use this space to tell us why you are interested in attending the conference and what contribution you would hope to make to the event - 150 words maximum

Please provide details of relevant experience (i.e. in theatre, academia, teaching) - 150 words maximum

Nine provocations, nine conversations
One of the aims of the conference is to curate a series of focused conversations, in different formats, around nine broad provocations. In the programme there will be two opportunities for attendees to gather in groups to explore these provocations.

Please confirm which conversation you would like to join on the Friday:
- Violence
- Gender
- Race
- Religion
- Art
- Difficulty and the public sphere
- Form
- Democracy
- Institutions

Please also confirm which conversation you would like to join on the Saturday:
- Violence
- Gender
- Race
- Religion
- Art
- Difficulty and the public sphere
- Form
- Democracy
- Institutions

Further information about the conversations can be found on the Conference website at www.birmingham.ac.uk/rmc2018