- 6.14 Members must notify the Club of any change from time to time to their postal address or email address by emailing universitymusichub@contacts.bham.ac.uk.

- 7.1 A member who is a registered student or employee of the University must as regards their membership comply with the University's Rules, regulations, policies, procedures, codes of practice and other legislation from time to time in force.
- 7.2 A Member, whether or not a registered student or employee of the University, must not conduct themselves in a manner injurious to the interests, character or reputation of the Club or the University or the interests of any Member.
- 7.3 A Member may complain to the University concerning the failure of another Member to comply with these Rules. The University may, either following receipt of such a complaint or of its own motion, investigate any potential failure by a Member to comply with these Rules. As regards the subject matter of such an investigation:
- The personal data (including their name and the subject matter of the complaint) of any Member who submits to the University a complaint concerning another Member may be shared by the University with the Committee, the University's Student Concerns Complaints and Appeals team and/or HR department (as applicable), and the Member about whom the complaint is submitted;
 - The personal data of any Member (including their name and the subject matter of the investigation) who is investigated by the University may be shared by the University with the Committee, the University's Student Concerns Complaints and Appeals team and/or HR department (as applicable), and the Member (if any) whose complaint gave rise to the investigation.
- 7.4 At its absolute discretion but having due regard to the views of the Committee, and notwithstanding the existence of other specified sanctions in these Rules, the University may expel from the Club with immediate effect, or impose a lesser sanction on, any Member:
- Whose conduct is in the University's opinion injurious to the interests, character or reputation of the Club or the University or the interests of any Member;
 - Who has otherwise failed to comply with these Rules and who has failed to justify or explain such conduct or failure satisfactorily.
- 7.5 Before the University imposes any sanction on a Member (but for in the circumstances specified at Rule 6.10), the University must make reasonable inquiry into the Member's conduct or failure and give the Member a reasonable opportunity to defend themselves and to justify or explain their conduct or failure.
- 7.6 Pending its investigation of any potential failure by a Member to comply with these Rules the University may, at its absolute discretion, suspend:

- The Member from using the premises and facilities provided by the University and participating in any relevant Group's activities;
- All Members of a Group in whose activities the Member participates from using the premises and facilities provided by the University and from holding any activities in connection with that Group.

For the avoidance of doubt, any such suspension shall not amount to a sanction under Rule 7.4 or otherwise imply any wrongdoing on the part of the Member(s) concerned.

- 7.7 A Member who is sanctioned under Rule 7.4 may appeal against the imposition of the sanction by emailing the University's Head of the School of Languages, Cultures, Art History and Music at headoflcahm@contacts.bham.ac.uk within 5 working days of the date of imposition of the sanction. The Member may not in connection with their appeal rely on any evidence that could reasonably have been available to the University in arriving at its decision to impose the sanction. The University will aim to acknowledge the appeal in writing within 2 working days. The University will aim to give a final response to the appeal within 10 working days. The University's decision is final and binding on the Member.
- 7.8 Subject to Rule 7.7, an expelled Member shall immediately cease to be a Member and forfeit all the privileges of membership and all other rights against the Club and the University.
- 7.9 An expelled Member is not entitled to any refund of their membership subscription and remains liable for their full membership subscription for the Academic Year or Term (as appropriate) during which they are expelled. A suspended Member is not, regardless of the outcome of the University's investigation into any failure by that Member or any other Member to comply with these Rules, entitled to any refund of their membership subscription and remains liable for their full membership subscription for the Academic Year or Term (as appropriate) during which they or the activities of any Ensemble in which they participate are suspended.
- 7.10 The facts and matters giving rise to an investigation of a potential failure by a Member to comply with these Rules may form the basis of proceedings facilitated by the University's Student Concerns Complaints and Appeals team and/or HR department (as applicable) under the University's legislation.

9 The Committee

- 9.1 All Committee Members must be Members.
- 9.2 Certain of the responsibilities associated with each position on the Committee shall be as set out at schedule 3. Further details of the responsibilities associated with each position are set out in the Committee Guide. Over and above the extent to which the Committee Guide details such responsibilities, the Committee Guide is a non-binding advisory document intended to ensure a smooth handover between outgoing and incoming Committees. The President shall review the Committee Guide annually before each annual general meeting and update it as appropriate.
- 9.3 The responsibilities of the Principal Committee Members shall be discharged by the University Committee Members (or, at their direction, a University employee).
- 9.4 The positions of the University Committee Members are not elected but, rather, shall be filled by the relevant postholders within the University or by such alternative postholder as the University may specify in writing.
- 9.5 For the Calendar Year comprising 1 January 2024 to 31 December 2024, the positions of the Principal Committee Members shall (but for in respect of the Community Representative, which shall be vacant in that Calendar Year) be held by the individuals set out at schedule 2. In respect of each subsequent Calendar Year, the Members shall at the immediately prior annual general meeting elect individuals among their number to the positions of the Principal Committee Members.

- 9.6 Only:
- Student Members who will be and remain students of the University for the duration of the Calendar Year in respect of which they seek election are eligible for election to and to serve on the Committee;
 - Student Members are eligible (save for in respect of any Principal Committee position prefixed 'community') for election to Principal Committee positions;
 - Community Members are eligible for election to any Principal Committee position prefixed 'community'.
- 9.7 No Member may be elected as a Principal Committee Member for more than three consecutive Calendar Years, provided that:
- Any period of time in which a Member has been co-opted onto the Committee shall not be a period of time for which they are elected to the Committee and shall therefore not count towards the three consecutive Calendar Years;
 - A member is eligible to be elected to the Committee in the circumstances specified in Rule 9.16 notwithstanding that they have previously been elected to the Committee for three consecutive Calendar Years.

- 9.10 If a Principal Committee Member without reasonably adequate justification or explanation fails to attend two consecutive Committee meetings or to fulfil their responsibilities, the Committee may debate a motion of no confidence in them. If the motion is carried by a resolution of the Committee, the Principal Committee Member shall, with immediate and automatic effect, vacate their position on the Committee.
- 9.11 Resignation from, or the vacation of a position on, the Committee shall not operate automatically as resignation as a Member or from any other position held within the Club (including without limitation any conductor position(s)).
- 9.12 Candidates for election to the Committee must present to the President at least 2 clear days before the relevant annual general meeting a written form of nomination signed by them, a proposer and a seconder, both of whom must be Members, and containing a candidate manifesto not exceeding 250 words in total.

- 9.15 At each annual general meeting, Members standing for election to a position on the Committee shall present a 1 minute speech outlining the reasons behind their decision to stand for election, their qualifications for the position, and their intended commitments to the Club, if elected. In the case of unavoidable absence from the annual general meeting, a candidate may nominate another member to deliver the speech on their behalf or may ask the President (at the President's absolute discretion) to read out their speech.

- 9.16 If no Member stands for election to a position on the Committee at a general meeting, the Committee shall offer the position in descending order to all Members who received the next highest number of votes in an election to another position. In the event that more than one such Member wishes to accept the offer, the Members shall vote upon the member to be elected to the Committee. In the event of a tie, all Members who received fewer than the highest number of votes shall be excluded from the recount;

For that purpose, the University shall in each Calendar Year announce the outcome of the vote for the position of President before speeches and voting takes place in respect of the elections to the other positions on the Committee.
- 9.20 After each annual general meeting and before the end of the relevant Calendar Year, the outgoing Committee shall meet with the incoming Committee, and each outgoing Principal Committee Member shall meet with their incoming Principal Committee Member counterpart, as reasonably necessary to ensure the orderly handover of responsibilities for the benefit of the Club and the Members.
- 9.21 The Committee may resolve to co-opt up to ten additional Committee Members (including without limitation final year students, and the manager of any Committee Ensemble not otherwise represented on the Committee) if reasonably necessary to discharge the function of the Committee including, without limitation, in circumstances where a Committee Member has resigned or vacated their position on the Committee. The position on the Committee of any co-opted member shall automatically be surrendered on any date specified by the Committee upon their co-option and, in any event, at the end of the Calendar Year in which the co-option takes place. That member shall, however, immediately be eligible for further co-option in accordance with these Rules. Co-option onto the Committee is at all times subject to the approval of, and is terminable at any time by, the University.
