

October 2011 Newsletter

New Students

We have started several students recently, so a big welcome to:

- Ben Asadipour-Farsani and Amir Asghani working with Premier Foods
- Peter Clark working with Johnson Matthey
- Nathan Burrill working with Unilever
- Thomas Stephenson working with Cargill
- Olga Mihailova working with Procter and Gamble
- Luke Swain working with Rolls Royce

Coniston

We have been offered May 21-25 for Coniston next year. Please let me know if you are interested in attending this, and also if you would want to, but cannot make this date. We should have confirmation of the date within the next 2 weeks.

EngD Conference

Provisional dates for the Conference next year are 16th – 18th April. This will be confirmed as soon as possible. Kathleen will again be assisting me with the organisation and programme, so please respond promptly to her requests.

Module Choices for 2011/2012 Academic Year

If you have not already responded to John's recent requests for confirmation of your Modules for this year, please do so as soon as possible.
