

Transitions in Undergraduate Mathematics Education: Launch and Continuous Personal Development Event

Edgbaston campus, University of Birmingham –
Wednesday, 25 March 2015

Programme

12:00	Arrival and Lunch
12:45	Welcome and Overview of Book John Blake, Chair of Advisory Group, sigma and University of Birmingham
12:50	The Changing Nature of Mathematics within UK Higher Education Joe Kyle, University of Birmingham
13:00	Lectures and Transition: From Bottles to Bonfires? David Pritchard, University of Strathclyde
13:30	Problem Solving in a Mathematics Degree Trevor Hawkes, Coventry University
14:00	Enabling Students to Become Independent Learners Louise Walker, University of Manchester
14:30	Tea/Coffee
14:50	Providing Effective Feedback Mike Robinson, Sheffield Hallam University
15:20	Creating an Accessible Learning Environment: Anticipating and Resolving Practical Barriers Emma Cliffe, University of Bath
15:50	Publishing in Learning and Teaching in Mathematics Rob Wilson, Cardiff University
16:05	Closing Session and Discussion Joe Kyle, University of Birmingham
16:30	Close