

How to Get Here

We are based in the Frankland building (pictured above) of the School of Psychology. To get here, follow the steps below to the neighbouring Hills building where one of our researchers will come and welcome you to the lab.

1) First, you need to head to the carpark of the Hills building on the Edgbaston campus of the University.

How you get here depends there depends on your mode of transport:

Directions by bus page: 6

2) Next enter Hills, which is building R3 shown on the Campus Map

3) Enter the Hills carpark, if you are driving, press the intercom and security will let you through.

4) Go into Hills reception and a researcher will be there to meet you.

5) They will help with parking, if needs be, and then take you to the waiting room.
