

The John Snow Anaesthesia Intercalated BSc Award 2015

The National Institute of Academic Anaesthesia (NIAA) is pleased to announce details for the 2015 John Snow Anaesthesia Intercalated BSc Awards, funded by the Association of Anaesthetists of Great Britain & Ireland (AAGBI)/Anaesthesia, the British Journal of Anaesthesia (BJA)/Royal College of Anaesthetists (RCoA), the Obstetric Anaesthetists' Association (OAA) and the Neuroanaesthesia Society of Great Britain & Ireland (NASGBI).

- The scheme has been designed to encourage medical student interest in anaesthetics and its related disciplines
- The AAGBI/Anaesthesia, BJA/RCoA and OAA are offering awards of £2,000 and the NASGBI is offering one award of £1,000.
- Each institution can submit a maximum of four applications so some coordination between supervisors will be required
- Awards go to the student and not the supervisor/institution and are meant to contribute to living costs. Project running costs will be funded by the supervisor/institution
- Assessment criteria: (1) quality of the student, (2) quality of the research project and (3) supervisor and teaching environment. We will NOT be providing detailed feedback to applicants
- Applications should be submitted for projects that have not yet commenced
- Funding should be acknowledged in any publications (i.e. Funded by AAGBI/Anaesthesia, BJA/RCoA, OAA or NASGBI via the NIAA as indicated in the award letter) and a final report will be required
- Depending on uptake, intercalaters may be asked to present their work at a meeting.

The closing date for applications is 5 pm on Tuesday 31 March 2015.
