

University of Birmingham
Medicine Contextual Schools

If the school where you studied for GCSEs and A Levels is on the list below, an application will be included in our contextual category. If you moved schools, only one of those schools needs to be on the list below.

The schools have been identified using the criteria described on our website (www.birmingham.ac.uk/applying-to-medicine)

Please use the 'Find' facility of your PDF Reader programme to search for your school. Because schools can be known by quite different names, we suggest that you search using the first part (only) of a postcode and work through the schools identified by that strategy.
