

Access to a Unique Talent Pool

Recruiting and getting to know our MSc, MBA and PhD students could not be simpler and with such a diverse international spectrum of expertise there is every reason to.

Recruiting and Selecting Candidates

We can facilitate you to:

- Identify specific candidates for your experienced-hire requirements.
- Present your recruitment programmes to specific postgraduate student groups.
- Advertise vacancies on our website.
- Run drop-in sessions here at the Business School to offer students the opportunity to talk individually and informally about opportunities within your company.
- Use the Business School facilities for interviews and assessment events.

Supporting Student Career Development

Promote your employer brand and get to know our postgraduate students by:

- Running skills/professional development sessions to help students to develop their employability.
- Contributing to recruitment workshops in areas such as interview skills and assessment centres.
- Offering mock interviews to students.
- Setting bespoke summer consultancy projects for the best of our experienced MBA talent.

Input into Taught Programme

Your company can build its profile and add to the student experience by:

- Delivering lectures on key topics related to the Business School curriculum.
- Working with the Business School academics and students to offer dissertation projects.

Employers unable to visit Birmingham

We can offer:

- Chat facilities enabling you to spend time online with interested students.
- Podcasting facilities.
- Sponsorship opportunities and an employer profile on our website.

To implement any of the above, or discuss additional and alternative ideas, please contact:

Andrew Miles, External Relations Manager, A.T.Miles@bham.ac.uk +44 (0) 121 414 6254