A quick overview of the latest guidance and evidence on current issues such as smoking, sexual health, health inequalities, mental health, obesity, substance abuse, women’s health – in fact anything that you ask for!

If you have a topic suggestion, please email it to Rachel Posaner. Previous searches can be found at: http://bit.ly/1H6QOQk

---

Parliament UK

- Cuts to public health risks widening health inequalities (Sept. 2016)

Public Health England

- Cost savings and the economic case for investing in public health (April 2018)
- Health matters: health economics - making the most of your budget (July 2018)
- Enabling local authorities to make the best spending decisions (June 2018)
- Making the economic case for prevention (Sept. 2017)
- Investing in prevention: the need to make the case now (Feb. 2016)
- Investing in prevention: is it cost-effective? (Feb. 2016)

Department of Health and Social Care

- Public health grants to local authorities: 2018 to 2019 (Jan. 2018)

NHS Evidence

- Less help to quit : What’s happening to stop smoking prescriptions across Britain (British Lung Foundation)
- Sexual and Reproductive Health. RCN report on the impact of funding and service changes in England. (RCN)
- Sexual and reproductive health: time to act. (RCGP)
- Maintaining our momentum essays on four years of public health (LGA)
- Return on investment of public health interventions: a systematic review (Journal of Epidemiology and Community Health)
- The hardest hit: Addressing the crisis in alcohol treatment services (Alcohol Concern)
- Organization and financing of public health services in Europe: country reports (2018) (WHO Europe)

HMIC

- The effect of spending cuts on teen pregnancy. Paton, David. Wright, Liam
  Journal of Health Economics 2017; 54 135-146 (July 2017)

Google Scholar

- How cuts to public health funding could affect pharmacy
Councils respond to cuts in Public Health grants allocation (Dec. 2017)

RSPH deeply concerned by short-sighted cuts to public health budgets (Sept. 2018)

Faculty of Public Health
The Public Health Funding campaign (= campaign)

[Collection of recent statements on public health funding]

Talking about the ‘return on investment of public health’: why it’s important to get it right (April 2018)

Local government spending on public health: death by a thousand cuts (Jan. 2018)

Spending on public health (May 2017)

Cuts to public health: why spending less will cost the NHS more (July 2017)

Health investment needs long-term thinking (July 2018)

Austerity by stealth? (Sept. 2018)
Institute for Government

How to fix the funding of health and social care (June 2018)

International Longevity Centre UK

Public health in Europe during the austerity years (Nov. 2017)

Royal College of Nursing

Debate: Public health funding (May 2018)
The Best Start: The Future of Children's Health (May 2017)

Royal College of Physicians

Public health – increasing need, falling investment (March 2018)

Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists

RCOG/FSRH joint statement on the King’s Fund analysis of local councils’ planned cuts to public health in 2017/18 in England (July 2017)

Faculty of Sexual and Reproductive Healthcare (FSRH)

FSRH press statement: More than 8 million women of reproductive age are now living in an area where cuts to contraception budgets have taken place (Sept. 2018; the AGC audit report is available here)

Royal College of Midwives

RCM concerned at new public health cuts figures (Sept. 2018)

Institute of Health Visiting (iHV)

Public Health England doesn’t deserve to keep its billions of taxpayer funding (The Times, March 2018)

Public health cuts undermine support for smokers (LocalGov, Jan. 2018)

Political priorities and public health services in English local authorities: the case of tobacco control and smoking cessation services (Journal of Public Health, Oct. 2017)

Public health interventions may offer society a return on investment of £14 for each £1 spent (NIHR Signal, July 2017)

Funding public health by business rates a ‘double-edged sword’ (Local Government Chronicle, Dec. 2017)

Theresa May to oversee £85m in cuts to public health budgets this year, analysis reveals (Independent, July 2017)

Public health cuts will lead to more sick people, report warns (Guardian, April 2017)
Public Health spending cuts stop health visitors protecting and supporting mothers and babies (Dec. 2016)

Family Planning Association (FPA)

Jeremy Hunt called to act on future of sexual health services (April 2018)

Fall in teenage pregnancy rates welcomed, but regional variations raise concerns as FPA calls for end to cuts (Dec. 2017)

Royal College of GPs report shows need for ‘urgent’ change to protect sexual and reproductive health (July 2017, includes link to related report)

Response to study on teenage pregnancy and spending cuts (May 2017, includes link to related report)

Teenage pregnancy rates at record low, but continued cuts could see them spiral (March 2017)

Terrence Higgins Trust

Funding of HIV and sexual health services [= campaign]

British Medical Association (BMA)

Making the case for prevention (Sept. 2018; includes link to full policy briefings)

Feeling the squeeze: The local impact of cuts to public health budgets in England (March 2018)

Worst-hit areas lose public health funding (March 2018)

National Aids Trust

UK investment in HIV prevention 2015/16 and 2016/17 (June 2017)

Ash

New Government data shows valuable Stop Smoking Services continue to decline (Aug. 2018)

Cuts in public health grant leads to decline in support for smokers (Jan. 2018)
New study shows extent of cuts to local services to help smokers quit, even where there is political support for these services (Oct. 2017)

TaxPayers’ Alliance
The efficacy of council public health spending (Nov. 2017)

Unsubscribe