

Consultative notice: changes to Amphlett China Trust ('the Charity')

The University of Birmingham is the Trustee of the Charity<sup>1</sup>. The University applied to the Charity Commission for a Scheme<sup>2</sup> for the Charity to broaden the terms of the Charity to benefit more students. The current terms of the Charity are restricted to provide a scholarship or maintenance for students studying Theology from China or students of a Chinese descent.

The proposed changes with the Scheme for the Charity will “advance education of students from China, Japan, Korea (South), Taiwan, Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Brunei and Vietnam in the subject of Theology at the University of Birmingham”.

If you have any comments on the proposed Scheme for the Charity, please contact Charlotte Jarvis, Director of Operations in the University's College of Arts and Law by email C.A.JARVIS@bham.ac.uk or telephone 0121 414 2213; or Nia Morgan at the Charity Commission, email operationswales@charitycommission.gsi.gov.uk or by telephone 03000651807 before 30 September 2015.

---

<sup>1</sup> The Charity is governed by an Order of the High Court dated 17 June 1960 and varied by a Charity Commission Order dated 15 September 2006.

<sup>2</sup> A Scheme is the legal consent of the Charity Commission to make alterations to the provisions of the governing document of a charity.