III. Permitted Activities

Activities accepted and encouraged under the UK-MX Visiting Chair include: attendance at workshops, research symposia, and conferences as well as meetings to scope collaboration, share best practise or develop new initiatives.

IV. Benefits

One candidate will be selected from each of Mexico's institutions, for a total of 12 candidates who will represent the Mexican HEI in the United Kingdom. Similarly, one candidate will be selected from each British institution, for a total of 12 candidates who will represent the British HEI in Mexico. The distribution of the candidates must be fulfilled in order that every Institution receives at least one visiting candidate. Reception of additional candidates is subject to approval of the hosting Institution.

Candidates selected for up to 2 weeks stay will be supported with the following costs: ¹

1. International flights for academics.²
2. Incidental expenses for a maximum period of two weeks.³
3. International major medical insurance.⁴
4. Accommodation.⁵
5. Workspace.⁶
6. Internal travel (bus or train. Inner-city travel expenses are not covered).⁷
7. Space for conferences, auditoriums etc.⁸

¹ Costs for additional days must be covered by the academic or the Institution of origin.

² The costs will be covered by the Mexican Agency for International Development Cooperation (AMEXCID). Selected candidates should note that the flights must be purchased through AMEXCID. Self-purchased flights will not be reimbursed.

³ The costs will be covered by the HEI of origin.

⁴ The costs will be covered by the HEI of origin.

⁵ The costs will be covered by the hosting HEI.

⁶ The costs will be covered by the hosting HEI.

⁷ The costs will be covered by the Mexican Agency for International Development Cooperation (AMEXCID). Internal travel to/from an Institution outside the Mexico – UK Visiting Chair scheme will not be covered.

⁸ Provided by the hosting HEI, if needed.

V. Eligibility Requirements

Researchers entitled to participate in this call must meet the following requirements:

1. Have obtained a doctorate degree.
2. Be employed by any of the HEI's that are part of the consortium.
3. Be nominated by their home institution.
4. Have obtained communication from the host Institution stating that the academic will be received during the dates he/she is suggesting.

For Mexican Applicants only:

1. Evidence of English proficiency: Published papers written by the applicant in English or TOEFL/IELTS exam results.
2. Those applicants who have an academic degree (Bachelor, Master or Doctorate) whose language of instruction was English will not need to provide additional evidence.

VI. Obligations of the beneficiaries

1. Commit and focus on the proposed visit objectives submitted with the application.
2. To spend at least four days at the allocated HEI with an option to visit other HEI(s) in the second week. In case the academic will be spending time in an Institution outside the Mexico – UK Visiting scheme, the days spent in the additional Institution must be less than those spent at the Mexico – UK Visiting Chair Institution.
3. Submit a detailed report of activities completed during the visit, stating outcomes and how you propose to continue the collaboration (within one month of completing the visit in the template provided).
4. Provide written feedback of any problems or challenges that the Commission must be aware of.
5. Successful applicants should visit the allocated HEI(s) no later than June 30th, 2018.
6. Successful applicants must coordinate their travel arrangements only through AMEXCID. Self-purchased tickets will not be reimbursed.
7. Successful applicants are responsible for ensuring they have the correct visa to travel to the UK or Mexico (dependent upon individual circumstances)
8. Act as an advocate for the initiative to encourage other applicants in the following years of the Visiting Chair.

VII. Application Procedure

The application must be made in English by the individual to their home institution and include the following documents:

- a. A completed research project proposal form
- b. Curriculum vitae including relevant publications;
- c. Communication from the host Institution, stating that the academic will be received in the suggested dates.

All documents must be submitted by email to the lead coordinator from your home institution. See Annex 1 for your institutional contact.

The deadline for submission is: August 18th, 2017.

VIII. About the National Commissions

Each National Commission is comprised of one representative from each of the 12 participating HEI's (and the Mexican Agency for International Development Cooperation - AMEXCID - in the case of the Mexican National Commission).

The Mexican Coordination for the period 2017-2018 is the National Autonomous University of Mexico, along with the Mexican Agency for International Development Cooperation. The British Coordination for the period 2017-2018 is King's College London.

The Mexican and UK Commissions are responsible for:

1. Publishing the annual call and results.
2. Selecting 12 national candidates for the Visiting Chair.
3. Planning, implementing and coordinating academic activities within the Chair.
4. Disseminating and broadcasting information about activities within the Chair's framework.

IX. About the selection process

1. The Commission will be responsible for verifying the compliance with all the provisions of this call.
2. Each National Commission shall submit to the partner country 12 candidates. The National Commission of the partner country will analyze the profiles of the candidates and determine the selection of the chair holders for each one of the HEI destinations. Selection will be aligned to the interests and priority areas of the HEI of destination.
3. Priority will be given to the creation of new links between institutions.

4. The Commission will review the documentation, endorse the process and select the beneficiaries based on their academic merit and the strategic interests of each of the participant institutions.
5. The results will be announced on Monday, October 2nd, 2017. The final decision of the Committee is definitive and without appeal.
6. The information provided in the grant application will be the full responsibility of the applicant. The National Commission reserves the right to exclude anyone from the selection process whose documentation was submitted with incomplete, incorrect or inconsistent data, or if it was submitted after the determined deadlines, or finds any information that is not truthful.

X. Additional provisions

The National Commission will solve any unforeseen matters in this call.
