DATA PROTECTION STATEMENT

This application will be sent to the University of Birmingham's Student Recruitment and Outreach team who will contact the applicant to confirm whether we're able to offer a place on the AEP programme.

The information provided by applicants, parents and schools/colleges will be held by the University of Birmingham in accordance with the University's Data Protection Policy, which can be found on our website (www.birmingham.ac.uk/datagovernance). We will keep it for up to four years from the end of the programme if the student is successful in gaining a place, and one year from the end of the programme if they are unsuccessful.

The information provided will be used as we have explained here and also to administer and manage the application and the student's attendance on the programme.

In addition, data about successful applicants may also be shared with the Department for Education (DfE), the Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE), UCAS (Universities College and Admissions Service), and the applicant's school or college, and matched with the National Pupil Database. We do this for research, statistical and monitoring purposes to help evaluate the effectiveness of this activity as part of the government policy to widen participation in higher education and to develop future policy. DfE, HEFCE, UCAS and schools/colleges will not use the data provided in a way that would affect the applicant individually. We will not share this information with any other organisations or for any other purpose.

You have the right to ask the University to take action in relation to the personal data it holds about you. If you wish to contact the University about these rights or if you are dissatisfied with the way the University has handled your data please contact dataprotection@contacts.bham.ac.uk. If that does not resolve your concern, you may complain to the Information Commissioner.
