

NATIONAL EMPLOYABILITY AND ENTERPRISE CONFERENCE (WEST MIDLANDS)

Friday 19th November 2010

This free event aims to explore the needs of both industry and those seeking employment.

The conference will explore how learners can be nurtured through education and employment and how this can sustain business growth within the region.

Who should attend?

- Employers
- Business entrepreneurs
- Careers Advisors
- Regional Employability Networks and Agencies
- Higher and Further Education Providers

What are you waiting for?

Register today at <http://nec.eventbrite.com>

See what you are missing: www.engagingwithemployability.co.uk/conference

NATIONAL EMPLOYABILITY AND ENTERPRISE CONFERENCE (WEST MIDLANDS)

Register today at <http://neec.eventbrite.com>

Friday 19th November 2010

10:00am - 5:00pm

Free Entry

The event will showcase the diversity of practice and engagement between Higher Education Institutes, students, graduates and employers in the region in order to provide the first "National Employability and Enterprise Conference."

Think Tank
Millennium Point
Curzon Street
Birmingham
B4 7XG

For further information
please contact
David Benson
david.benson@ncge.org.uk