

Looking Forward to Clean Sport: The Future of Education- and Detection-Based Deterrents to Doping

Hornton Grange, University of Birmingham, 29th April 2015

| Time | Event | Details |
|-------------|--------------------|---|
| 0930 – 1000 | Registration | Event registration – tea and coffee available |
| 1000 – 1015 | Welcome Address | The event will officially be opened by a senior member of UoB. |
| 1015 – 1030 | Event Overview | Dr Ian Boardley will introduce the event and present the overall aims and schedule for the day |
| 1030 – 1130 | Keynote Address | “The Doping Hunter” Professor Arne Ljungqvist will discuss the evolution of anti-doping and his vision for its future |
| 1130 – 1145 | Coffee Break | Informal discussions and networking – tea and coffee available |
| 1145 – 1300 | Panel Discussion 1 | Dr Vasilis Barkoukis, Professor Susan Backhouse, Dr Ian Boardley (Chair), Dr Anne-Marie Elbe, Dr Maria Kavussanu, and Professor Andrea Petroczi will discuss the role of research in informing social science-based approaches to clean sport |
| 1300 – 1400 | Lunch | Informal discussions and networking – seated lunch provided along with tea and coffee |
| 1400 – 1515 | Panel Discussion 2 | Brian Davis, Dr Jonathan Grix (Chair), Professor Barrie Houlihan, and Stephen Watkins will discuss how anti-doping law and policy can inform effective approaches to clean sport, including both NADO and governing body policy influences |
| 1515 – 1630 | Panel Discussion 3 | Joan Duda, Jade Johnson, Scott Murray, Simon Phelan, Tom Parsons, Nicola Newman, and Ceri Wynne (Chair) will discuss clean sport education and the perspectives of athletes’ and their support team on doping in sport |
| 1630 – 1700 | Coffee Break | Informal discussions and networking – tea and coffee available |
| 1700 – 1815 | Panel Discussion 4 | Professor John Brewer, Dr Neil Chester, Dr Kevin Currell, Terence O’Rorke, and Dr Gareth Wallis (Chair) will discuss the safety and necessity of supplement use in sport with respect to the avoidance of inadvertent doping |
| 1815 – 1830 | Closing Remarks | Professor John Brewer will draw the formal aspects of the event to a close with some closing remarks on the day and the future of clean sport |