SECTION 14
ACADEMIC STAFF

PART I: GENERAL

1. General principles of construction and application

- (1) This Section of the Statute and any Ordinances or Regulations made under it shall be construed in every case to give effect to the following guiding principles:
 - (i) to ensure that members of Academic Staff have freedom within the law to question and test received wisdom, and to put forward new ideas and controversial or unpopular opinions, without placing themselves in jeopardy of losing their job or privileges;
 - (ii) to enable the University to provide education, promote learning and engage in research efficiently and economically; and
 - (iii) to apply the principles of justice and fairness.
- (2) Where there is any issue as to the meaning of academic freedom in this regard in any proceedings under Parts II, III, IV, V and VI of this Section of the Statute, regard shall be had to Sections VI and VII (and including paragraph 12 of Section IV) of the Recommendation concerning the Status of Higher-Education Teaching Personnel adopted by the General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) in Paris on 11 November 1997, details of which are set out in Ordinance.
- (3) Any reference in this Section of the Statute to a provision in an Act of Parliament shall be taken to be a reference to that provision as it may have been amended or superseded from time to time.

2. Application

- (1) This Section 14 applies to the following:
 - (i) The members of the Academic Staff as defined in Section 1 of these Statutes (save that Part II shall not apply to those Academic Staff excluded from that Part by clause 5(1) below);
 - (ii) such other members of Staff or categories of Staff of the University as determined by Ordinance by the Council; and "member(s) of staff" in this Section means those members of the staff to whom this Section applies.

- (2) This Section 14 will override any provision in any contract, term or condition of employment (whether that contract, term or condition pre-dates or post-dates the commencement of this Section) which is inconsistent with this Section, but

- (i) it shall not affect the validity of any compromise agreement under section 203 of the Employment Rights Act 1996, or any similar agreement permitted by law; and
 - (ii) it shall not preclude any member of staff deciding or agreeing to terminate employment with the University, whether by voluntary severance, early retirement or otherwise, on whatever terms have been agreed; and
 - (iii) it shall not preclude any member of staff agreeing to vary or waive any provision of this Section or any Ordinance made under this Section, as appropriate in the circumstances of his or her individual case.
- (3) Nothing in any other Section or in any Ordinance or Regulation made thereunder shall compel any member of staff of the University who objects on grounds of conscience to sit as a member of any Panel or body appointed under this Section or to be present when any such Panel or body is meeting to arrive at its decision or for the purpose of discussing any point of procedure.
- (4) Parts II to V of this Section 14 shall not apply to removal from an office as Vice Principal, or Pro-Vice-Chancellor, or such other offices as have been designated by the Council as offices to which this sub-clause applies, to which a member of staff has been elected or appointed and which is distinct from that individual's substantive post, where dismissal from the substantive post is not contemplated, but the Council shall by Ordinance prescribe a procedure for handling such removals prior to the prescribed or normal termination date, which shall include the right to be heard by a panel and the right to appeal to a different panel.
- (5) This Section 14 shall not apply to the Vice Chancellor, except for Parts III and IV, which shall, unless the Council, with the Vice Chancellor's concurrence, resolves otherwise apply to the Vice Chancellor in post at the time it comes into effect, with such modifications and adaptations as the Council, with the Vice-Chancellor's concurrence, shall prescribe but it shall not apply to any later Vice Chancellor, even if also the holder of an academic post.
- (6) For the purposes of this Section 14, the University's reasonable decision as to which provision of this Section should be invoked to deal with any specific matter concerning a member of staff shall be final. No action or decision taken under this Section or any Ordinances made under this Section shall, for the purposes of this Section, be invalid on the grounds that the matter could have been dealt with under some other Section, Part, Clause or Ordinance than that in fact invoked.

- (2) conviction of a criminal offence by any court of competent jurisdiction, where that offence is judged in all the circumstances to be relevant to the member of staff's employment by the University;

- (3) failure, refusal or neglect to perform some or all of the duties or to comply with some or all of the conditions attaching to the post, or performing those duties or complying with those conditions in an unsatisfactory or inadequate manner;

 - (i) fair and reasonable time limits for each stage;

- (3) In drawing up the procedures, and in any Regulations made thereunder, regard shall be had to Section 1 of the Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures (as may be amended or replaced from time to time) issued in September 2000 by the Advisory Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS) and brought into effect by order of the Secretary of State under section 199 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

11. Dismissal

- (1) The Registrar and Secretary or nominee shall give effect to a finding of a Panel that a member of staff should be dismissed:
 - (i) where the panel has designated the conduct as "gross misconduct" such as to merit summary dismissal pursuant to clause 10(ii)(g), the Registrar and Secretary shall forthwith dismiss the member of staff;
 - (ii) in all other cases, the Registrar and Secretary or nominee shall issue the notice of dismissal or dismiss together with payment in lieu of notice in accordance with the determination of the panel.
