

UNIVERSITY OF
BIRMINGHAM

The Digital Frontiers of Land, Law, and Endowments in the Eastern Mediterranean

Friday 24 March 2023

Stuart Hall Room
The Exchange, 1 Centenary Square
Birmingham

Welcome and Coffee – 10.00-10.30

Opening Remarks – 10.30-10.45

Session I – 10.45-12.15

Albrecht Füess (University of Marburg) – Waqfization in the late Mamluk Empire: A deliberate policy or chaos management?

Nicolas Michel (University of Aix-Marseilles) – The EGYLandscape webGIS, a tool for the historical geography of pre-modern rural Egypt

Daisy Livingston (Durham University) – On the trail of Waqf and Private-property archives: Notaries, Qadis, and Document Accumulation in late-Mamluk Cairo

Lunch – 12.15-13.15

Session II – 13.15-14.45

Christopher Markiewicz (University of Birmingham) – Reflections on Pious Endowments and Ottoman State Building

Styliani Lepida (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki) – Struggle for Land: Spatial Evolution and Management of the Great Meteoron Monastery's Land Property (late 16th-17th c.). Documentation Challenges and Digital Parameters

Mariya Kiprovska (Central European University) – People on the Move: Strategies in Revitalizing the Landed Estates of Pious Endowments

Coffee – 14.45-15.15

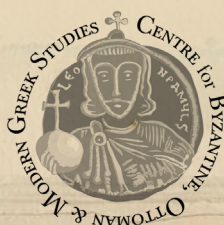

Session III – 15.15-16.45

Grigor Boykov (University of Vienna) – Spatial Exploration of Vakıf Lands in the Early Modern Eastern Balkans: Methodological Considerations and Limitations

Abdurrahman Atçıl (Sabancı University) – OTTOLEGAL: An Inquiry into the Actors of Ottoman Lawmaking

Salih Günaydın (Sabancı University) – Developing a Data Model for the Analysis of Ottoman Legal Documents

Concluding Discussion – 16.45-17.15

This workshop is organized by Christopher Markiewicz and the Centre for Byzantine, Ottoman, and Modern Greek Studies at the University of Birmingham through the support of UKRI.