

AFRICA TALKS

Department of African Studies and Anthropology
University of Birmingham

SPRING 2018

Indirect Rule, the Mission Encounter and Witchcraft in Colonial South-eastern Congo, 1910-1960

Reuben Loffman, Queen Mary, University of London

Wed 10 January

The Suffering Subject: Flogging Scandals in Colonial Northern Nigeria and a Humanitarian Public Sphere, 1912-1933

Steven Pierce, University of Manchester

Wed 17 January

Today We Become: Echoing the Past to Negotiate the Landscape of Postcolony

Sola Adeyemi, Goldsmiths, University of London

Wed 24 January

Colonialism, Political Transition and Politics of Redress in Nigeria

Hakeem Yusuf, University of Birmingham

Wed 31 January

Making Concessions: Power and Ecstasy in the Congolese rainforest

Thomas Hendriks, University of Oxford

Wed 7 February

Bureaucracy from Below: Stabilising Land Rights after Zimbabwe's Land Reform Program

Leila Sinclair-Bright, University of Edinburgh

Wed 21 February

The Struggle over State Power in Zimbabwe: Law and Politics Since 1950

George Karekwaivanane, University of Edinburgh

Wed 28 February

Hackers of the Heart: Cons, Virtual Intimacy, and the Sorcery of the Internet in Abidjan

Sasha Newell, Université Libre de Bruxelles

Wed 7 March

Prophets, Evangelists, and Missionaries: Trans-Atlantic Interactions in the Emergence of Nigerian Pentecostalism

Laura Premack, Lancaster University

Wed 14 March

TBC

Ola Uduku, Manchester School of Architecture

Wed 21 March

4:30-6:30pm, Danford Room, 2nd floor, Arts Building