

Department of African Studies and Anthropology University of Birmingham

AUTUMN 2018	DATE
School Design in Africa: Issues and Challenges for 21st Century Learning Ola Uduko, Manchester School of Architecture	Wed 3 Oct
From Witchcraft to Satanism: Changing fantasies and new experiences in the South African Lowveld Isak Niehaus, Brunel University	Wed 10 Oct
The (other) property ladder: Taxation and the construction of analogue property rights in Lagos Olly Owen, University Oxford	Wed 17 Oct
The Gold Route to Timbuktu: tracing medieval trans-Saharan camel caravan networks from Morocco to Mali Sam Nixon, University College London	Wed 24 Oct
Mining, waste and environmental thought on the Central African Copperbelt, 1950-2000 Iva Pesa, University Oxford	Wed 31 Oct
African commercial organization on the Gold Coast in the 17th century Robin Law, University of Birmingham and Stirling University	Wed 14 Nov
Air pollution in East Africa: urbanization and inequalities Francis Pope, University of Birmingham	Wed 21 Nov
'Bora Uhai': Performing Digital Vernaculars in Kenya George Ogola, Lancaster University	Wed 28 Nov
Ambivalent belonging: Born-again Christians between Africa and Europe Leslie Fesenmyer, University of Birmingham	Wed 5 Dec
Putting Satan at the Centre: Rethinking Contemporary Global Christianity in Nigeria and Beyond Laura Premack, Lancaster University	Wed 12 Dec

4:30-6:30pm, Danford Room, 2nd floor, Arts Building