Corpus Linguistics Summer School
University of Birmingham, 15 – 18 July, 2024

UK time (BST)	Monday 15 July	Tuesday 16 July	Wednesday 17 July	Thursday 18 July
10:00 – 11:00	9:50 – 10:00 Akira Murakami Welcome 10:00 – 11:00 Paul Thompson Introduction to corpus linguistics	Adam Schembri: Towards a corpus linguistics of signed languages	Edward Clay Applying corpus linguistics to multilingual law	Akira Murakami Topic models in R
11:10 – 12:10	Susan Hunston Finding hidden meaning in concordance lines	Participant presentations	Nicholas Groom Rethinking phraseology in theory and practice	Participant presentations
13:10 – 14:10	Florent Perek Introduction to CQPweb	Paul Thompson Introduction to Sketch Engine	Jason Grafmiller Tagging and parsing with spaCy	Joyce Lim Analysing learner language
14:20 – 15:20	Katharine Weetman Analysing healthcare data using corpus linguistics: ethical considerations	Jack Grieve Fake news	Participant presentations	Petar Milin, Laurence Romain, and Justyna Mackiewicz Corpus-based computational modelling: Case studies and practitioner's approach
15:30 – 16:30	Participant presentations	Akira Murakami Introduction to R	Michael Oakes Statistics and readability
18:00	[Sinclair Lecture] Dawn Knight Applying corpus linguistics: Impacts of corpus research in a minoritised language context			