The day is an interactive event for urban practitioners and missionaries to share insights, theory, theology and good practice around what it is to be church in our rapidly changing urban contexts.

It will be facilitated by Chris Baker (William Temple Foundation/University of Chester), Margaret Jones (Parishes of St George's & St John's Altrincham/University of Chester), Chris Shannahan (University of Birmingham), Anna Thompson (Eden Network/University of Chester), Derrick Watson (Cathcart Baptist Church, Glasgow/University of Chester).

It is intended as part of an ongoing network of meetings, events and resources to support those engaged in urban mission and ministry.
