

Mental Health Mission: Midlands Translational Centre Local Principal Investigator Training

SUPPORTED BY

NIHR | National Institute for
Health and Care Research

Thursday 18th January 2024
09.30 – 15.30

The Exchange
3 Centenary Square,
Birmingham B1 2DR

PROGRAMME

9.00 am	Registration and refreshments
9.30 am	Welcome, introduction and overview of the day Dr Gemma Unwin Mental Health Mission Research Fellow, School of Psychology, University of Birmingham
9.40 am	Introduction to the Mental Health Mission Professor Rachel Uptegrove Director, Mental Health Mission Midlands Translational Research Centre of Excellence
9.55 am	Why become a PI? Professor Steven Marwaha Professor of Psychiatry, Institute for Mental Health, School of Psychology, University of Birmingham
10.20 am	REFRESHMENT BREAK
10.40 am	Introduction and life cycle of a trial Ryan Otteridge Trial Management Team Leader, Birmingham Clinical Trials Unit, University of Birmingham
11.10 am	Activity – Who does what in a clinical trial? Matching roles to standard trial processes and relating to individual sites
11.30 am	Feedback and discussion from activity All
12.00 pm	LUNCH
12.45 pm	The roles and responsibilities of PIs View from a current PI
1.30 pm	Developing capacity and capability within local Mental Health Trusts Emma Patterson Head of Research & Delivery, Birmingham and Solihull Mental Health NHS Foundation Trust
2.30 pm	REFRESHMENT BREAK
2.45 pm	Next steps to becoming PIs How to take things forward
3.00 pm	Completion of feedback questionnaires All
3.20 pm	Closing remarks Professor Steven Marwaha Professor of Psychiatry, Institute for Mental Health, School of Psychology, University of Birmingham