

2021 Birmingham Annual Clinical Academic Training Event

Tuesday 23rd November 2021

2.30 – 7.00pm

The Medical School
University of Birmingham

Hosted by Professor Kristien Boelaert
Director of Integrated Academic Training, University of Birmingham

Keynote Speaker: Professor Helen Stokes-Lampard

Helen Stokes-Lampard is Professor of GP Education, Chair of the Academy of Medical Royal Colleges (AoMRC) and a GP Principal and Chair of the National Academy for Social Prescribing (NASP). She was Chair of the Royal College of General Practitioners (RCGP) until Nov 2019. As part of her role as RCGP Chair, Helen had a high media profile with over 200 TV, 200 radio and 20,000 appearances in printed media (newspapers). She sat on national workforce committees, the national emergency pressures panel and met with politicians and policy makers. Prior to training as a GP, Helen worked in Obstetrics and Gynaecology for several years and this experience shaped her clinical and academic aspirations. She was a personal mentor for doctors in difficulty in the Midlands until 2016, a scheme supported by the West Midlands Deanery and RCGP Midland Faculty. She continues to provide personal mentoring to a range of colleagues. Helen was the Head of Primary Care Teaching (undergraduate) in the Medical School of the University of Birmingham until becoming RCGP Chair.
