‘BactiVac brings the bacterial vaccinology community together to accelerate the development of vaccines against bacterial infections relevant to LMICs. The Network acts as the global voice for bacterial vaccinology.’

Prof Cal MacLennan
Director

‘The Network offers opportunities to encourage collaboration between academic, industrial & other partners in developed and developing nations. We are keen to support members based in LMICs and early career researchers.’

Prof Adam Cunningham
Co-Director
