

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

Birmingham Masters Scholarship

Academic year 2023-2024

Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

In order to be eligible for the Birmingham Masters Scholarship, you must be:

1. Undertaking a Masters course in an eligible subject;
2. Domiciled in the UK and classified as a Home student for tuition fee payment;
3. Not already registered on a postgraduate programme;
4. Self-funding or applying for a Postgraduate Government Loan to pay your fees and not in receipt of any other financial support including but not limited to scholarships, awards, bursaries, sponsorship or any other funding (excluding the University of Birmingham Postgraduate Progression Award which can be held in addition to the Birmingham Masters Scholarship).

You may not hold other awards funded by the University in addition to the Birmingham Masters Scholarship, unless specifically excluded under the terms of such award or awards.

If your application is successful, all offers are based upon the terms and conditions of the scholarship and further eligibility checks will be undertaken. All offers are made upon the assumption that any and all information you submit is truthful and accurate; the scholarship can and will be revoked if you are found to be in violation of the scholarship's terms and conditions at any point.

Payment

The value of the Birmingham Masters Scholarship is £2,000. This will be paid as a discount on your tuition fee and no part of the award can be made as a cash payment.

If your tuition fees are charged modularly then the £2,000 will be spread evenly across the first and second semesters of your first year of study.

Termination

In any of the circumstances set out below the Birmingham Masters Scholarship will be withdrawn and you will receive no (or no further) payments from the University:

1. If you permanently leave the University due to illness (whether or not following a Leave of Absence under the University's Code of Practice on Leave of Absence procedures);
2. If you leave the University voluntarily for reasons other than illness;
3. If you are required to withdraw from the University due to disciplinary or fitness to practise proceedings;
4. If you fail to complete satisfactorily the requirements of your programme.

The University reserves the right to demand the repayment of any instalment or instalments (or part thereof) of the Birmingham Masters Scholarship paid to you in circumstances 2 or 3 set out above.

Leave of Absence

In the event that you take, or are required to take, a Leave of Absence during the academic year any Birmingham Masters Scholarship payments still due will be suspended until you return from your Leave of Absence and re-register as a normally registered student with the University.

Upon re-registering you will be paid the balance of any instalments due from the academic year when the Leave of Absence was taken.

If you fail to return to the University after a Leave of Absence then the Birmingham Masters Scholarship will be terminated and you will receive no (or no further) payments from the University, as outlined above.
