NAME: Sandra

STUDY: MSc International Business

NATIONALITY: Nigerian

Why did you choose to study at the University of Birmingham Dubai?

Nothing beats the thought of studying at a top 100, world-class institution. Look no further, there is nowhere else to build that promising future than the University of Birmingham. Dubai!

Why did you choose to study International Business?

I chose MSc International Business because I wanted to be exposed to the different facets of globalisation. It's an all-encompassing programme that gives you a holistic knowledge in what to expect in the world of work. The programme equips you with the versatile knowledge you need to excel in an ever-changing global world.

Working together in groups on projects, assignments and presentations has helped reshape my interpersonal relations and boosted my confidence and public speaking skills.

What has your student experience been like?

It's been a great experience for me, excellent faculty members, coupled with a dynamic group of students, world-class tuition and an awesome support system, I must say the University of Birmingham Dubai is actually a home away from home!

Dubai is one of the commercial and business centers of the world and very cosmopolitan at heart, I found it a viable environment to gain corporate experience.
