Why did you choose to study at the University of Birmingham Dubai?

As the University of Birmingham Dubai is a global top 100 and prestigious university, I knew I would receive a high quality education. The University has such an inclusive environment, I feel so welcome studying here.

Why did you choose to study Economics?

I chose to study BSc Economics because I want to have a career in sustainable development and I feel that the knowledge I gain through Economics will give me a wide and solid foundation to pursue that career.

What has your student experience been like?

My student experience at UoB Dubai has been amazing! I've made so many new friends and I have a good relationship with all my Professors, my studies have been going really well.

My favourite thing about UoB Dubai is the Student Association room! Its super fun and I get to mingle with all my friends and play pool!
