LGBTQ Resource List

* only minor updates made in June so not updated main version on website  JC

Details of archives and rare books held at Cadbury Research Library: Special Collections

This is a guide to LGBTQ related archives and rare books held at the Cadbury Research Library. Items in this list have been found using our catalogues and indexes, or suggested by staff members/researchers, but it is not exhaustive. If you come across other useful sources during the course of your research, we would be pleased to hear about them.

You can search our archive catalogue and our book catalogue online, and our main website gives visitor information should you wish to consult any of the items we hold.

We feel it is important to acknowledge there may be people listed in this guide that weren’t ‘out’ or might not have associated with an LGBTQ identity during their lifetime. There may also be instances where people have identified themselves as LGBTQ but the books or archives we hold about them are not specifically LGBTQ related. At present, whilst we have the title ‘LGBTQ resource guide’, there are no known Trans references listed. Please get in touch if you know of items that could be included.

The National Archives also has compiled a useful starting guide for researchers wishing to research LGBTQ history.
Archives: personal and family papers

Barrymore, Blanche Marie Louise (nee Oelrichs)
Pseudonym Michael Strange. 1 file of letters dated c 1924-c 1932. Finding number: OMN/A/2/12

Butler, Eleanor (see also Ponsonby, Sarah)
Letters from Lady Eleanor Butler written from Llangollen Vale, 1811-1813 Finding numbers: JER/595, JER/677, and JER/682

Calthrop, Gladys
Gladys Calthrop’s costume drawings for the production of ‘Conversation Piece’ by Noël Coward, 1934 (Finding number: MS492). There are also numerous entries for Calthrop in the Noel Coward archive (COW), and in the theatre collection (MS38)

Carpenter, Edward
Letters from Edward Carpenter to Helen and Granville Bantock, 1917-1918. Finding numbers: LAdd/3289-3300. Two of these letters (LAdd/3297 and LAdd/3298) mention Carpenter’s partner, George Merrill. Also a letter from Granville Bantock mentioning a visit by Carpenter, 1919. MS140/2 (item 65).

Coward, Noël
Noël Coward had ‘impeccable dignity in his sexual life, which was reticent but untainted by pretence’ (Rebecca West in Barry Day’s ‘The Letters of Noël Coward’). Coward’s short play Still Life (1935), which later became the film Brief Encounter (1945), is seen to reflect Coward’s experience of being gay in this time. It conveys the experience of denied feelings and socially imposed shame through an affair between Laura and Alec, who are both married to other people. Later, when Coward’s sexuality was publically acknowledged, his work was used in theatrical galas and music albums to raise money for Aids related charities such as ‘London Lighthouse’ and the ‘Red Hot Aids Charitable Trust’.

We also have material in the Noël Coward archive related to people who were known to be gay/bisexual, for example Sir John Gielgud; Compton Mackenzie; John Addington Symonds; and L. P. Hartley.

Noël Coward archive: Finding number: COW

Ellis, Havelock
Francois Lafitte was Havelock Ellis’s literary executor. There are some of Ellis’s papers in Lafitte’s deposited archive. Finding number: US72 (boxes 45 and 46).

Harris, Walter Burton
European travel journal, with drawings, of Walter Burton Harris, an English adventurer in the late 19th century. Harris’ marriage to Lady Mary Saville was annulled due to his homosexuality. Finding number: MS161
Kerensky, Oleg
Finding number: MS126

Nicolson, Harold
Papers related to Nicolson’s political career. Numerous entries can be found in the Oswald Mosley archive (finding number: OMD), and the Neville Chamberlain archive (finding number: NC). In a rare personal letter OMD/1/1/2 item 8, Nicolson mentions his wife, Vita Sackville-West, and his feelings about Oswald Mosley.

Ponsonby, Sarah (see also Butler, Eleanor)
Note from Lady Eleanor Butler and Miss Sarah Ponsonby [of Llangollen] concerning payment for books to Lackington, Allen & Co., written by Sarah Ponsonby, 1812.
Finding number: BU/5

Radclyffe Hall, Marguerite
Typescript copies of love letters and telegrams written by Radclyffe Hall to Evgenia Souline, a Russian emigre nurse with whom she embarked on a passionate affair. The letters cover the years 1934, when Hall met Souline, to 1937 but the affair lasted almost until Hall's death in 1943. Hall wrote to Souline almost daily, always ending 'Your John'. Hall’s letters detail her obsession with her lover and reveal the emotional impact this relationship had on her life partner, Una Troubridge.
Finding number: MS676

Reed, Henry
Papers of the poet and literary critic Henry Reed. Includes a number of letters between Reed and his partner, Michael Ramsbotham. Written during the 1940s when homosexuality was illegal, these are important surviving examples of letters between two men. However, the letters largely relate to their literary work and are not overtly about their personal relationship.
Finding number: MS31

Telfer, William Prince
His diaries, 1911-1916, form a rich source for research into the impact of the social and moral 'purity' movement in the early twentieth century, and for the study of sexual attitudes and identity.
Finding number: MS202

Williams, Emlyn
Welsh dramatist and actor. He wrote frankly of his homosexual experiences, and was publicly out as bisexual. We hold a file of papers on his play ‘He Was Born Gay’, 1937.
Finding Number: MS38/2426
United Reformed Church
Correspondence, 1993-1997, relating to debates within the United Reformed Church concerning homosexuality.
Finding number: DA29/2/14

University of Birmingham archive
There are known to be lots of references to LGBTQ issues, the Gay Liberation Front, Gay Soc, student societies and associated groups etc. within publications such as the student magazine 'Redbrick' (section finding number UB/GUILD/F/5), and in the Guild of Student Handbooks (UB/GUILD/E/3). A list of articles from ‘Redbrick’ dating 1960s-1970s has been compiled by students. Please ask staff for further details.

The Rainbow Trail

Students at the University of Birmingham put together 'The Rainbow Trail' in February 2017. This is a trail exploring the lives and communities of LGBTQIA+ (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, asexual and other marginalised identities). Books and museum objects featured in the trail are held at the University of Birmingham.

Two books from the Cadbury Research Library were selected for inclusion in the trail. William Shakespeare’s ‘Sonnets’, decorated by Charles Ricketts, London: Hacon & Ricketts, 1903 (Classmark: PR 2753.V2). Also Oscar Wilde’s ‘The Portrait of Mr W H’ (Classmark PR 5819.P6)

See The Rainbow Trail website complied by the student group for further information.
